

To Whom it may concern

Mandi Whitten of Weensyweb Designs has provided us with excellent and professional service in the setting up of our new website. All comments about the site have been extremely positive. Mandi was extremely responsive and sensitive to our requirements and provided all work on time and on budget. Additionally she is able to provide follow up maintenance and a high level personal service to her clients.

We would highly recommend her to anyone considering setting up a website or altering their online image.

Yours Sincerely
